Today's Message: Pastor David
“The Preciousness of Life”
Psalm 139:13-16

You made all the delicate, inner parts of my body
and knit me together in my mother's womb.
Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex!
Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it.
You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion,
as I was woven together in the dark of the womb.
You saw me before I was born.
Every day of my life was recorded in your book.
Every moment was laid out
before a single day had passed.

Psalm 139:13-16

In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his

but overcome evil with good.

Romans 12:20-21

You may have noticed Alec's blue truck at the parsonage this past week. Alec has been working on the kitchen cabinets. We appreciate all the work he has done in giving the cabinets a fresh new front.

Alec, Erin and Rhett will be moving into the parsonage on May 23. It would be appreciated if a few men could provide help unloading their trailer.
Please contact Pastor Dave if you can help.

Never could it be possible, for any man,
to estimate what he owes,
to a godly mother

Happy Birthday!
