Weekly Scripture Verse:

*"And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone. Rejoice always, pray without ceasing"
 1 Thessalonians 5:14-17*

We have started a new Weekly Reading Plan. Weekly readings will be in the bulletin each week. If you prefer, you may pick up a paper copy at the church office or you can go online to www.FiveDayBibleReading.com if you wish to print a copy

Being in Christ, it is safe to forget the past; it is possible to be sure of the future; it is possible to be diligent in the present.
 - Alexander MacLaren

We are back to regular office hours this week:

Great Is Thy Faithfulness, Thomas Chisholm (1923)

It's inspiring to hear about hymns that were written in extraordinary circumstances — thunderstorms, shipwrecks, or life-shaking events. Still, not every great hymn was written in the throes of danger or the heights of exultation. In fact, one of the greatest, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," was written by an ordinary man in an ordinary situation in the ordinary ups and downs of life. Thomas Chisholm was a pastor for one year, but for most of his life, he worked as an insurance agent. He was born in humble means in Kentucky, struggled with health problems, and worked hard to make ends meet the rest of his life. He wrote, "My income has not been large at any time due to impaired health in the earlier years which has followed me on until now. Although I must not fail to record here the unfailing faithfulness of a covenant-keeping God and that He has given me many wonderful displays of His providing care, for which I am filled with astonishing gratefulness." This hymn for the ordinary Christian is about an extraordinary God. Rich or poor, we all can say, "All I have needed Thy hand hath provided."

As we look back over the past year, may we see the faithfulness of the Lord in a very unusual and difficult year. May we look ahead to the new year with excitement and anticipation of what the Lord will do.

Happy Birthday!
